A 20-year-old University of Calgary student who had been planning her wedding has died in the intensive care unit at Foothills Hospital following a hit and run accident, her family confirmed Saturday.

Lindsay Rachel Giacomelli was hit in a crosswalk on Thursday evening on Bonaventure Drive S.E. just north of Southcentre mall, by a red SUV that fled the scene.

Giacomelli graduated from Dr. E.P. Scarlett High School in 2002 and was enrolled in the University of Calgary's dance program.

Police are searching for the driver of the vehicle, which likely has front-end damage. Witnesses described the vehicle as a newer-model, red sport utility vehicle.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Calgary Police Service at 266-1234 or the police traffic section at 295-7900.
